external examinations. All the functions of the examination committee are done under the guidance of Hon'ble Principal and Vice Principals of the college.

Mechanism for Internal Examination Conduction-

All the mechanism related to the examination and grievances is transparent and robust. The internal examinations are conducted according to the guidelines and schedule provided by the University.

According to the University guidelines internal examinations of B.A., B.Com. B.Sc. are conducted in each semester for 40 Marks. The internal evaluation for the B. Voc. degree programmes is for 25 marks. The paper setting and assessment for internal examinations is done by the concern subject teacher. The students who are unable to give internal examination on given date are given another chance for the same. At the end of the semester, average of all weekly tests is considered for calculation of final marks.

Mechanism for Student Grievances and Redressal-

The entire internal and external examination procedure is carried out under the guidelines provided by K.B.C. North Maharashtra University, Jalgaon. All the process to resolve the related grievances is kept transparent. Any discrepancy related to internal and external examination is solved by the examination committee. The grievances related to the internal examinations are first solved by the concern subject teacher if the concern subject teacher not been able to solve the grievances related to internal examination of his/her subject then according to the University Guidelines and under the guidance of Hon'ble Principal grievances are solved by the examination committee.
